

ASTROLOGY 2025- JAN-JUNE

©COYOTESTARASTROLOGY

JANUARY - NODAL SWITCH, WELCOME TO THE NORTH NODE PISCES!!

Prioritize: This month the nodes switch, and we are all going to start a new journey to North Node Pisces by confronting and releasing South Node Virgo! This is going to be an 18 month adventure, but it starts here in January. Familiarize yourself with your Mercury placement shadows and natal Neptune placement strengths! Venus also enters preshadow, so prioritize going over your course notes to locate where she will transit your chart by house so you can start paying attention to preshadow lessons and themes. We've got a lot of water in the chart, so take the foot off the gas and enjoy some new ethereal Pisces energy when you can. Theme for this month but for the whole year is: don't over complicate things with your mind/worry how it will all work out, trust in the higher plan!

- January 2nd Venus moves into Pisces. For just a little over a week she becomes our South Node ruler of south node Libra. This may show us lessons in relationships about reality vs fantasy.
- January 6th Mars leaves Leo and re-enters Cancer in its retrograde course. This means Mars has re-entered an area of your chart that was active and in preshadow during October. With Mars in Cancer, many may see themes around their living situation, emotions, and feelings of inner security powerfully up for review yet again. Mars went station direct until end of February, so you may notice plans, visions, and trajectories have more energy to move forward end of February than they do now. You may be in the planning phase now, may see those plans uncertain or transforming again now with Mars opposite Pluto as well.
- January 6th-January 16th Mars makes a beautiful trine to Neptune. Magical forces are pulling us towards otherworldly realities --- but we have to trust fall into them!
- January 8th Mercury enters Capricorn.
- January 11th The nodes switch! Hallelujah we made it through South Node Libra/North Node Aries! We are now on an 18 month journey of South Node Virgo, North Node Pisces!

Full Moon in Cancer January 13th With this full Moon conjunct Mars, this full moon marks a potential important illumination point for our Mars Retrograde journey that will help shape plans for February. With the full moon conjunct Mars and opposite Pluto at the same time, emotions may be running high. A auspicious trine to the north node calls for emotional trust and surrender, even if our logical mind resists. Cancer rules matters on the home front, family, living situation, emotions, and inner security. A sextile to Uranus begins to illuminate a key moment where we are realizing some refreshing/new aspects to our direction that you may not have expected. Connects back to a New Moon in Cancer on July 5th 2024.

- From approximately Jan 18th-end of January, Mars retrograde in Cancer makes a supportive sextile to Uranus. Notice places where you see positive unexpected new alignments within your direction. These new pathways offer a refreshing perspective with where you're headed that you probably didn't see coming, but there's something beautiful and new about it that makes sense!
- January 19th welcome to Aquarius season! Happy birthday Aquarius!
- January 27th Venus enters preshadow! Note where 24° Pisces hits your chart! This is the beginning of your Rx threshold - what chart is she in in your natal chart?
- Jan 23rd-27th Mars in Cancer trine Venus in Pisces – what a dreamy and romantic duo! This combination favors unconditional love vibes and sweet cozy dynamics. See how this pair bless you as they make their brief pass. You may catch their energy in a sweet moment spent with friends, a mystical afternoon in the park, or a heart opening moment felt in the ethers!

New Moon in Aquarius January 29th -- This is a New Moon that is trying to help us release the past by encouraging us to try something experimental, progressive, and new. A New Moon that wants to break the confines of how things have been before to radically upgrade, shift, and explore a new timeline. Aquarius is always trying to break us out of a stagnate mindset and offer a higher plane! The moon's ruler, Uranus, auspiciously goes direct the same day, which means energies are likely to be abuzz with strange electricity and feel quite interesting! There may be plot twists we weren't expecting, or a desire to do something radical. Set new intentions in new directions that revolutionize and help you surrender to love, creativity, flow, and magic! Connects to a Full Moon in Aquarius on August 8th 2025.

FEBRUARY- FALLING INTO INFINITY

Prioritize: Drinking up the psychedelic magical realms that the rare Neptune North Node conjunction has to offer! Prioritize spiritual practice, creative flow, trusting in divine timing, embracing your intuition, working with your guides, meditation, etc. Honestly avoid constricting 3D concerns at ALL costs--Let them go for now cuz this doesn't happen very often!! Take the plunge, surrender, and see just how much your heart and mind can expand! Spirit trumps logic in this sense – be open to miracles and magic. Leave your doubt and worries at the door (if you can) and test yourself to have faith.

First week and a half of February - Neptune north node exact conjunction exact! Is a higher path calling you?

February 4th Venus enters Aries (still in preshadow)

February 4th Jupiter Direct!!

February 6th-February 12th Mars retrograde trine Saturn – A nice productive stabilizing energy for Mars. This helps our Mars retrograde plans find some stable footing and guidance.

Helpful for rational planning, slow gentle strides, and progressive solid moves.

February 9th-11th Mercury square Uranus – known for unexpected news and events - also electrified with full moon energy incoming a few days later!!

Full Moon in Leo February 12th - Unstable kinda chaotic energies this full moon! The full moon is square Uranus exact, so there is an essence of destabilization that unnerves here. Uranus is a planet known for its jack-in-the-box surprises and realizations that change things. When there's a stress aspect like this one it can feel like a bit of an edgy couple days and the full moon day is unlikely to go as planned. Stay flexible! Let this full moon uplift some interesting unexpected realizations around self worth, self love, and desire around direction. Connects back to a New Moon in Leo on August 4th 2024.

- February 14th Mercury goes into Pisces
- Happy Birthday Pisces! Welcome to Pisces season!
- February 14th Mars is stationing over the next 10 days – he's like a plane ready to lift off! You may notice certain gears turning anxious and ready to finally move.
- February 24th – Mars Direct FINALLY! green light for many things begins now. This is exciting! Mars will take a little bit to actually get moving but know that many, many processes will get back on their feet now.

New Moon in Pisces February 27th: Beautiful, magical, sparkly aspects for this one loves, but also a lot of needing to grow! This new moon is trine Mars in Cancer that just went direct a couple days earlier. This begins a new phase around recent new moves that may feel divinely guided, mystical, or auspicious in some way. Saturn's nearby presence and mercury's connection to the North Node speaks to spiritual discipline and spiritual elevation. The moon's ruler, Neptune, is still tightly conjunct the North Node asking how much can you have faith that what is meant for you is calling your name? A moon not quite of this world, but dancing with us in other dimensions! Set intentions around your spiritual discipline and connection to your spiritual practice and see how they bloom! Connects to a Full moon in Pisces Sept 7th 2025. << should be an interesting one!!

MARCH- RETROGRADE CITY & ECLIPSE SEASON - WILD MONTH OF GROWTH

Prioritize: Paying attention to building retrograde themes! Remember, retrogrades are periods of revision. If you can, hold off on purchases, contracts, and commitments until retrograde planets go direct. Venus is retrograde so there may be strong karmic themes within relationships, so approach matters of the heart knowing you're in a reflective period. Both retrogrades happen at the North Node which signals massive growth and evolutionary challenge. We are being tested to rise into a new version of reality that requires trust and surrender. Two eclipses will highlight and punctuate karmic growth processes around these nodal lessons.

- March 1st Mercury enters preshadow at 27° Pisces.

- March 1st Venus goes retrograde at 10° Aries.
- March 1st Mercury conjunct Neptune exact - a dreamy but confusing vibe. We can be over idealistic and unclear, but great for creativity and meditation.
- March 3rd Mercury enters Aries
- March 11th -12th Mercury conjunct Venus retrograde - typically hallmarks important conversations, messages, or thoughts about the retrograde. We are rethinking and figuring out a lot here!

Total Lunar Eclipse Full Moon in Virgo March 13th Our first eclipse of the year! This eclipse is also our first at our new nodal axis, the Virgo/Pisces axis. This eclipse has the moon positioned at the South Node, which highlights a theme or pattern from the past ready for emotional release and evolution. The moon's ruler, Mercury, is in Aries stationing retrograde next to Venus. We can be prompted here to release tendencies that are unhealthy within relational dynamics in order to surrender to a higher path. This may represent where we are holding onto something out of control or worry of releasing it. Here we are asked to favor releasing into the multidimensional and unconditional wings of Neptune/pisces at the North Node! If we are releasing someone or something we are asked here to do it with love, as Pisces sees beyond the illusion into the totality of unity. Surrender to highest love and highest timelines xx

- Mercury retrograde March 15th
- March 20th Happy Birthday Aries! Welcome to Aries Season! HAPPY NEW YEAR! <3
- March 21st-25th Mercury and Venus Cazimi with the Sun! Marks an illumination moment for both retrogrades that usually involves important conversations or messages --going to be a very clarifying couple of days!! Much revealed.
- March 27th-April 1st Mercury and Venus connect Neptune. This can be very confusing for matters of the heart and for conversations! Can lead to fantasy, over idealism, deception. or just general uncertainty. Can certainly also lead to heart expansion and beautiful moments, but it can be hard to know what is real and what isn't. Make sure to remember you are in retrograde waters and to treat this time as such! Gather info, consider, but hold off on major decisions and commitments.

Partial Solar Eclipse New Moon in Aries March 29th – This eclipse is POWERFUL! And it's a new moon eclipse so set your intentions into this portal wisely as they will start a highly potent new wave of energy into the coming months and years! Our New Moon is in bold and brazen Aries at the north node, encouraging us to channel strength and initiative in a new direction. We find the energy predominantly clustered around the North Node in Pisces trine the moon's ruler Mars in Cancer. Mars is an action planet, and in this case Mars is opening us to new possibilities to find inner security and a sense of home and emotional contentment. Because there's so much energy at the North Node in these times we are needing to raise the bar and make attempts to do things differently. With the moon conjunct Mercury retrograde it looks like a new cycle beginning as a result of recent discoveries, curiosities, and unfolding questions. Connects to a full moon in Aries on October 6th 2025.

March 30th Neptune changes signs to Aries! The North Node ruler has switched! Note where Mars is in your chart – that area is activated now :)

APRIL-DECISION TIME – RETROGRADES MOVE FORWARD

Prioritize: Rising to the challenge, making decisions, and coming to new realizations. We see both Mercury and Venus go direct in the same month, so it's clear we get some answers and see some situations begin to resolve. We have Saturn at the north node all month so we are being called to grow, show up, and grow up, in insanely huge ways. Saturn will require a level of maturity here. This can also be a goal focused month where we lean on discipline and responsibility. Some of the Neptunian haze clears and we trade it for reality around what is taking form.

- Throughout all of April but especially middle to second half of the month, Saturn is conjunct the North Node and he's not messing around! That means we can expect to see an increase in South node and North node lessons. We will be called powerfully to surrender to a new evolutionary growth state-- Check where Neptune is in your natal chart! That is being activated heavily throughout the whole year but especially now!
- April 4th - April 8th Venus and Mercury Retrograde make conjunction with Saturn. This marks a time in the retrograde for serious considerations and potentially important conversations. Saturn can have a sobering effect on Pisces, where the fantasy gets a bit more realistic. What is really going on here? May also hallmark important days around career, goals, events, or spiritual discipline. There is a lot around our mission/destiny/and way forward calling us now.
- April 7th Mercury Direct trine Mars in Cancer. Because this mercury direct stations direct in aspect to Mars, this is a powerful station! With the station asserting Mars in Cancer this means we are making decisions around where we feel at home, at peace, where we belong, and where we feel emotionally aligned. This is also a Mercury station direct at the North Node – a new direction/reality is calling powerfully that we have thought a lot about recently during the retrograde!

April 12th Venus direct at the north node conjunct Saturn! Serious relationship themes and life purpose themes begin to move forward as well!

Full Moon in Libra April 12th- Without a doubt, relationships are up front and center for this full moon in Libra! Especially when we consider that Venus, the ruler of love and relationships stationed direct the day prior, so we are totally engulfed in Venusian energy. This of course highlights matters of the heart, interpersonal relationship dynamics and decisions, and big growth matters that we have probably been mulling over over the last several weeks. (Note that Venus can also signal financial themes). With Venus conjunct Saturn we are likely needing to make rational decisions now and clear confusion. Venus' trine to Mars and Sextile to Uranus illuminates progressive heart expansion, and an emphasis here on compassion, and understanding. The full moon spotlights Chiron, emphasizing healing of tender areas and wounds within relationships with others. Connects to a new moon in Libra back on October 2nd 2024. Beautiful full moon for healing and receiving clarity on retrograde questions.

- April 16th Mercury goes back into Aries
- April 16th-18th Mercury conjunct Neptune – dreamy and creative, but careful for illusion!
- Uranus Sextile Saturn & the North Node second half of April - A new way of seeing goals, career, projects, and the future.
- April 17th Mars is back in Leo!!
- April 19th Welcome Taurus Season! Happy Birthday Taurus!
- April 20th Mars in Leo trine Neptune in Aries. New dimension to self love and creativity possible

New Moon in Taurus April 27th - What dreams are you building? Taurus is a builder and the moon and its ruler are ready to build something challenging but new. This is another Venus ruled moon -Our hearts and soul's have received massive upgrades since the nodes switched, and part of that related to enhanced spiritual perception, connection, creativity, and greater awareness of divine currents. This is a New Moon that supports us to rise into those realizations by taking a step forward to build from this new place with a renewed sense of self love and self worth. Venus is still completing her post shadow, so her journey recently through retrograde is probably at play here. There is an emphasis on unified field connection, recognizing the inter relatedness and interconnectedness of all things, and approaching life and love with new values. Connects to a Full moon in Taurus on November 5th 2025.

- April 30th Venus goes back to Aries

MAY---A TEST, A CROSSROADS

Prioritize: Noticing the magnification of the south node virgo themes when Jupiter starts to square mid month! This sets up a karmic “cross roads” where the soul feels tugged between two evolutionary states. We will be tested on our Virgo south node homework, but don't worry, you'll be all prepared! Can be really helpful to check where the nodes are transiting by house for this month :)

1st-7th of May--potent window!! Mars in Leo trine Venus in Aries conjunct Neptune in Aries! This is a powerful signature for boosting creativity, expression, identity, branding, confidence, and artistic flair!

May 4th Mars leaves post shadow!!

May 10th Mercury enters Taurus

Full Moon in Scorpio May 12th 2025 Full Moon's in Scorpio have a way of bringing in a certain eerie magnetic and transformative vibe and are typically full of intensity. This particular one comes with a dash of surprise as its opposite Uranus. This can come with a shift we weren't expecting by awakening us to something that was in the “shadows” – either literally hiding such as in the revealing of a secret, or by showing us a hidden aspect of our subconscious. The full moon's ruler, Pluto, is square mercury, suggesting potential intense conversations, thoughts, or state of mind. Secrets, possessiveness, hidden agendas, or hidden motivations may be a theme. Connects to a New Moon in Scorpio back on November 1st 2024.

All month Jupiter is technically square the nodes, but energy peaks May 15th - May 25th. A square to the nodes means a sharp increase in nodal lessons. South node Virgo will be magnified --- this will in turn magnify our need to elevate into the North Node in Pisces. This is a challenging aspect. Remember, surrender, faith, and divine trust is key!!

May 20th - Gemini Season! Happy Birthday Geminis!

May 24th - Saturn enters Aries!

May 23rd-May 24th Mercury conjunct Uranus. Unexpected news or twist of innovation possible. Makes sextile to Saturn so good for innovation within career--- especially financial!

New Moon in Gemini May 27th 2025 This is a refreshing New Moon with phenomenal aspects perfect for launching something new and shifting our state of mind. All planets except Pluto are direct, and all aspects to the new moon and its ruler are positive! It's got a nice "clear run way" vibe. Check what house the first ten degrees of Gemini fall in your chart, but more generally Gemini rules communication, writing, speaking, education, siblings, neighbors, and travel. Over all a crisp and clear new moon that suggests setting sail in a new direction with emphasis on learning, social connections, education, writing, speaking, or journeys. Connects to a Full Moon in Gemini on December 4th 2025

JUNE- KEEP THE FAITH

Prioritize: Keeping the faith through a month with its challenges, particularly if you have anything between 0-5 degrees of the cardinal signs (Aries, Cancer, Libra, Capricorn!) You may be really tested this month, and you will likely notice people you know going through it a bit! We find Saturn and Jupiter back in their exact square, remember this magnifies Saturn energy significantly and can feel overwhelming! Don't overload your plate during this time, there is probably going to be a lot going on and you will be grateful for downtime to catch your breath. Take note of where Jupiter changes signs in your chart by house so you can be aware of new emerging themes. Jupiter will square Neptune which can be confusing but does come with its magic as well! Things might feel strange – hang on and enjoy the ride! one of the more intense months of the year for sure.

June 5th Venus goes into Taurus

Jupiter square Neptune all Month! Dreamy but confusing

June 6th-8th Mercury conjunct Jupiter in Gemini --- "A big message" - Jupiter magnifies Mercury here. There can be big headlines, big conversations, expansion of information.

June 8th Mercury enters Cancer (squared by Saturn and Neptune!)

June 9th Jupiter enters Cancer (squared by Saturn and Neptune!)

Jupiter conjunct Mercury in Cancer: Big ideas, but big emotions! Keeping in mind that this is square to Saturn and Neptune, we want to be aware of a few things! First off, emotions may be running very high suddenly. This is the interplay between Aries and Cancer in a stress aspect, which has the ability to bring out the shadow side of both (Aries: Anger) (Cancer: Emotional Sensitivity). With the added square to Neptune there is likely to be an added element of confusion or even delusion amidst high intensity and possible challenge. Themes around home, living situation, family, emotional security, motherhood, the mother, and ancestry. Cancer is the archetypal child, so “childish displays” of emotion may be common. We may feel more nostalgic around this time as well.

Full Moon in Sagittarius June 10th 2025 Not gonna lie, this is a high intensity one guys! The moon's ruler is Jupiter, which recently went into Cancer and is squared by Neptune and Saturn! This puts the moon's ruler at detriment, so some may feel a stressful intensity around this one if it's hitting their chart unfavorably or if they are ultra sensitive to collective vibes! The Moon itself is in a supportive trine to Mars and Chiron, so there is deep healing available here via exposure of the truth of our beliefs. An emotional yet philosophical full moon that connects to a New Moon in Sagittarius back on November 30th 2024. Mercury Rx was conjunct that New Moon, and I think that adds to the sort of chaotic vibe of this one cuz there might be some retrograde seeds that bloom that need the kinks worked out!

June 17th Mars goes into Virgo

June 18th-June 22nd Mercury in Cancer trines the North node in Pisces. This energy supports us to trust in the plan and surrender – Mercury has a message here that brings a missing piece we need for the growth challenges we are facing June 20th Entrance of Cancer season. Happy Birthday Cancer!

New Moon in Cancer on June 25th 2025 Another emotional moment in an emotional month! This New Moon in Cancer is conjunct Jupiter, supersizing the feels. Cancer is the watery, sensitive, intuitive archetype that illuminates our deepest security needs. With Saturn and Neptune squaring this moon, our current emotional security may feel threatened or confusing, and we are likely to want to find a place that feels like home. This is a time to find a sense of sanctuary and peace and inner stability amongst the shifting tides. While the energies are peak intensity, what can you do during this New Moon to create a sense of peace and stillness for your nervous system? Surround yourself with comforting environments that foster a sense of inner well being. Set intentions on how to protect this sweet stillness, how to cultivate, and nurture it. Connects to a full moon in Cancer on January 3rd 2026.

June 26th Mercury goes into Leo and trines Saturn and Neptune. Creative burst for projects and goals possible

Thank you for being on this journey with me!! xx Alex
